About the Panel Session

Reforms to Results: Powering Economic Growth for Shared Prosperity

As Nigeria continues its reform journey, the 2025/2026 economic agenda now faces a defining test – translating well-intentioned reforms into measurable outcomes that drive sustainable, inclusive growth. This panel will explore how fiscal, monetary, and institutional reforms can shift from policy to performance, powering productivity, attracting long-term capital, and ensuring prosperity that reaches every segment of society.

Key topics to be discussed:

Fiscal Reforms: Ensuring that tax and expenditure reforms strengthen revenue efficiency while funding growth-critical sectors.

Monetary Policy & Price Stability: Examining foreign exchange reforms, inflation control, and their role in restoring market confidence.

Governance & Institutional Reforms: Embedding transparency, accountability, and effective coordination across economic institutions.

Sectoral Growth Drivers:

Unlocking opportunities in agriculture, manufacturing, and renewable energy to spur diversification and job creation.

Financial & Capital Market Reforms:

Deepening access to finance and leveraging the capital markets to fuel real-sector expansion.

Participants will gain actionable insights into how Nigeria can sustain reform momentum, measure progress, and ultimately convert policy intent into real economic results, building a resilient economy where growth is both inclusive and shared.
